The Prize will contribute to Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) 4: “Ensure inclusive and equitable quality education and promote lifelong learning opportunities for all”. The Prize will reward in particular activities that are innovative and/or have far-reaching sustainable impact.

Article 2 – Designation, amount and periodicity of the Prize

2.1 The Prize shall be entitled “UNESCO Confucius Prize for Literacy”.

2.2 The Prize shall be funded by the Government of the People’s Republic of China, and shall consist of a recurrent payment of US $180,000 per year. The Prize shall consist of an amount of US $20,000 for each of the three prizewinners, and a study visit to project sites in China, to be jointly decided upon by the Government of China and UNESCO, and organized by China’s National Commission for UNESCO, for the winners of the UNESCO Confucius Prize. The invitation to participate in the study visits will be extended to the prizewinners of the King Sejong Literacy Prizes, after consultation and agreement with the donors.

2.3 All funds received and the interest accrued thereon shall be kept in a special interest-bearing account for the Prize (see Financial Regulations in Annex II).

2.4 The full staff support and operating/management costs of the Prize, including all costs relating to the award ceremony, public information activities including the production and dissemination of publicity materials, and the relevant studies estimated at US $120,000, shall be fully covered by the Government of the People’s Republic of China. To this end, the Director-General shall determine a mandatory overhead cost amount to be applied and charged against the funds in the Special Account, which is to be established under the Financial Regulations of the Prize.

2.5 The Prize shall be awarded annually, on an initial basis of five years.

Article 3 – Qualifications of candidates

Candidates shall have made a significant contribution to literacy work serving rural adults and out of-school youth, particularly women and girls. Prizes may be conferred upon individuals, institutions, organizations or other entities.

They shall be appointed by the Director-General for an initial two-year period, with the possibility of renewal for the remainder of the five-year period of the Prize. Representatives and alternatives of Members of the Executive Board cannot be appointed as jurors. Jurors involved in a real or potential conflict of interest shall recuse themselves from further deliberations or be asked by the Director-General to do so. A member shall not take part in a vote concerning a nomination from his or her country.
